

Damien Clarke AIMM Dip Bus Mng & HRM

Damien currently lives on the Sunshine Coast, Queensland Australia with his wife, two adorable girls and two playful dogs. His aim is to make a difference in the lives of others through his books and presentations.

Damien is currently the Managing Director of Red Rock Adventure Products, a company established to provide camping equipment and to support educators through the distribution of adventure educational books, props, games and activities used to assist with the facilitation and processing of experiential adventure learning activities.

Additionally, Damien operates a separate business delivering Personal Development workshops to various companies and businesses. His 'Take a Minute' book is proving very successful with participants.

There is no substitute for a superb presentation as Damien brings warmth and energy to his presentations. His natural approach and moving 'real life' experiences makes the participants feel at home and captivated by his message for living and enjoying life!

Past Career Highlights

National Operations Manager, Project Adventure Australia

Facilitated corporate training programs; responsible for sales initiatives and tracking results; implemented operating procedures and policies; implemented improved cash flow strategies and Facilitated the inaugural meeting for the introduction of a National Body called the Association for Challenge Course Technology, Australia (ACCTA).

Assistant State Manager, Community & Media Relations, Commonwealth Bank of Australia

Provided marketing and promotional support to branches; orientated branch special events and promotional launches; assessed sponsorship applications and made recommendations; co-ordinated the Bank's sponsorship portfolio in NSW and ACT; various public speaking engagements and given the responsibility of managing (on-the-road) the Bank's largest monetary sponsorship portfolio, the 1996 Commonwealth Bank Cycle Classic in .